The Dolphin

One day, there was a dolphin called Blue. And do you know why he was called Blue? Because he loved the blue sea and the blue sky and he was even blue himself. But one day, Blue saw a whirlpool. He tried and tried to go to his mum, but the whirlpool was just too strong. He was scared, and frightened and all alone. He didn't know what to do but scream, so that is what he did. He shouted and screamed, and screamed and shouted, but it was no good. Blue cried. Blue was lost. Blue wished that he had his family beside him. Suddenly the whirlpool stopped, but Blue was still lost and didn't know where to go. Just then he heard a voice and then he saw it! It was Blue's family! He was so excited to tell his mum about what had happened. His mum made him some food. It was very yummy. Then he played with his little brother. It was so much fun.
